

Dear Keyli,

I love you with all my heart. I am so grateful that you have stuck by my side for so long. I love you and care for you more than you could ever imagine. It's insane to think that we have been together for 8 years, but they have been the best 8 years of my life. I don't know who I'd be without you, and I don't want to know. My love for you grows more each and every day. Thank you for being you and loving me. Thank you for making me smile and laugh. Thank you for filling that emptiness I used to feel. I promise I will always stay by your side and love you and cherish you every day for the rest of your life like you deserve. The site is pretty cool though hu? Lol Happy Anniversary bebe. I love you! 4-14-14

Love,

Bryan
